

Kurt Heuer is a retired chief of police with the Wisconsin Rapids Police Department, who served the Wisconsin Rapids community for many years. He served as Wood County Sheriff for three terms before joining WRPD as Chief of Police in June 2005.

Mr. Heuer has been active as a board member and chair of many local non-profit organizations in the Wisconsin Rapids area. He has been a member of the Aspirus Riverview Foundation Board since 2018, helping give back and improve the Wisconsin Rapids community. Mr. Heuer earned a master's degree in management and organizational behavior and is a graduate of the 205th Session of the FBI National Academy, where he also served as a section representative.

In retirement, Mr. Heuer has served as program manager and law enforcement liaison for Marshfield Clinic Health System and chief operations officer for the Boys and Girls Club of the Wisconsin Rapids Area.

Mr. Heuer and his wife, Kim, have two married children and five grandchildren, who they enjoy spending time with. They love being on the river and spending time at the beach during the warmer months. When it gets chillier, they enjoy walks with their dogs, Monte and Norman, and bicycling.
