

Steve Walczak is a graduate of Wisconsin Rapids Assumption High School and grew up a mile from Aspirus Riverview Hospital. He has been an attorney in the Wisconsin Rapids area for 39 years and is a partner at Hill & Walczak Law Office. Mr. Walczak earned his bachelor's degree from Western Colorado University in Gunnison and his juris doctor degree from Hamline University School of Law in St. Paul.

Mr. Walczak is a dedicated community member, who enjoys supporting and contributing to the growth of the Wisconsin Rapids area. He is a board member of the Assumption High School Foundation, co-president of the Assumption Athletic Association, former president of United Way of South Wood County, a lector at his church, and has been involved with the Red Cross.

Mr. Walczak and his wife, Jane, have been married 40 years. They have three sons, Ben, Alex and Christopher. In their free time, they love to ski, camp and fish. They especially enjoy visiting Colorado, Wyoming and Europe as much as they can to enjoy their favorite winter sport. In the summers, they make it a tradition to camp and go on fishing trips to Canada with friends. Mr. Walczak's favorite place to visit is Jackson, Wyoming, where he visits his son, Ben and spends time on the ski slopes. He also enjoys watching and supporting the Milwaukee Brewers.
