

Aspirus System-wide Grand Rounds

Caring for our Hmong patients

Kevin Thao, MD
Aspirus Wausau Family Medicine

Statement of Accreditation

Aspirus Wausau Hospital is accredited by the Wisconsin Medical Society to provide continuing medical education for physicians.

Credit Designation Statement

Aspirus Wausau Hospital designates this live educational activity for a maximum of 1 AMA PRA Category 1 Credit[™]. Physicians should claim only the credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

ANCC

The American Nurse Credentialing Center (ANCC) includes CME credit as formally accredited/approved contact hours.

Date: Originally Presented May 2, 2017

Speaker: Kevin Thao, MD

Objectives

1. Describe the history of interaction between the Hmong community and the medical community
2. Discuss the effect of culture on medical care
3. Identify the major health problems affecting the Hmong community and the strategies to address these health problems

Bio – Dr. Thao completed his medical degree from the University of Wisconsin School of Medicine and Public Health in Madison, WI, and his residency at the University of Wisconsin Department of Family Medicine. Dr. Thao remains especially interested in population and public health, chronic disease prevention and management, and addressing health disparities in minority populations. He is certified through the American Board of Family Medicine.

Target Audience – this program is designed for physicians, residents, physician assistants, nurse practitioners, registered nurses, allied health care professionals, medical students, and management; interested health care professionals are strongly encouraged to attend.

Disclosure

In accordance with the Standards of the Wisconsin Medical Society, all those who are in a position to affect content of this CME activity are required to disclose financial relationships with any commercial interest(s) related to the subject matter of this activity.

The speaker, activity director, and planning committee have no relevant financial relationships or conflicts of interest to disclose.

For questions about this program, please call (715) 847-2184 or email cme@aspirus.org