

THERAPY CAREER PIPELINE

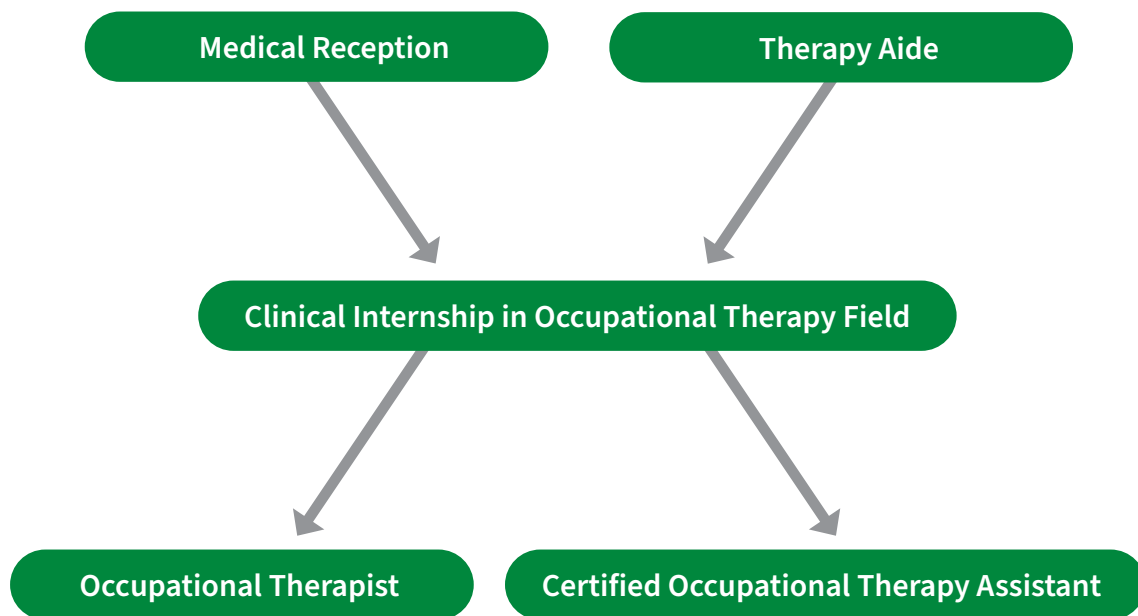

The healthcare therapy pipeline provides specialized pathways in Occupational, Physical, and Speech Therapy, enabling professionals to advance patient care through expertise and technology. Aspirus fosters career growth by offering opportunities for personal development, advanced certifications, and specialized skills.

Physical Therapy

Occupational Therapy

Speech Therapy

Occupational Therapy Pathway

Leadership and Operations

Therapy professionals can advance into leadership and administrative roles, progressing through supervisory, managerial, director, and executive positions while expanding their expertise and influence.

Medical Receptionist

A Medical Receptionist gains experience through direct patient interactions and exposure to healthcare systems and workflows by greeting patients, managing check-ins and appointments, updating records, and handling phone communications.

Education/Training: Knowledge of office procedures normally acquired through completion of a high school diploma, GED or equivalent combination.

Requirements/Experience: Preferred customer service or healthcare experience, computer and keyboarding experience.

Therapy Aide

Therapy aide is a non-licensed staff member who has completed on the job training and works under the supervision of a licensed therapist to provide patient care.

Education/Training: High school diploma or GED. CPR/BLS training provided upon hire.

Requirements/Experience: Previous experience beneficial.

Certified Occupational Therapy Assistant

An Occupational Therapist Assistant provides therapy services under the supervision of an Occupational Therapist. COTA treat patients across the life span to maximize their independence in everyday living. COTA's treat patients in a wide variety of settings including but not limited to hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, and outpatient clinics.

Education/Training: Associate's degree and certification examination. CPR/BLS training provided upon hire.

Requirements/Experience: State COTA licensure.

Occupational Therapist

An Occupational Therapist provides therapy services across the life span evaluating and treating patients to maximize their independence in everyday living. Occupational therapists evaluate and treat patients in a wide variety of settings including but not limited to hospitals, skilled nursing facilities, and outpatient clinics.

Education/Training: Bachelor's degree in occupational therapy. CPR/BLS training provided upon hire.

Requirements/Experience: State OT licensure.